

Technical University of Mombasa

Faculty of Applied and Health Sciences

DEPARTMENT OF PURE AND APPLIED SCIENCES
UNIVERSITY EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN COMMUNITY HEALTH
BSCH 13M

APH 4205 : PRIMARY HEALTH CARE

SUPPLEMENTARY/SPECIAL : EXAMINATION

MARCH 2014 SERIES

2 HOURS

Instructions to candidates:

This paper consists of FIVE questions

Answer question ONE (compulsory) and any other TWO questions

QUESTION ONE

a) After delivering a baby boy of a mission hospital Mrs. Tatu was advised to ensure that her child complete the immunization schedule as per the Kenya Division of vaccines and immunization (Drs) . The baby was also given the BCG vaccine before she was discharged home.

- (i) List the causes of any four immunizable diseases (4 marks)
- (ii) Identify any three specific health messages to give Mrs. Tatu concerning the BCG vaccine administration to her baby. (6 marks)

b) State any four pillars of primary health care. (4 marks)

c) Explain six problems that were solved by the introduction of the District focus strategy

(6

marks)

- d) Identify any four players in the implementation of primary health care (4 marks)
- e) Explain any three roles of the Government in the primary health care implementation (6 marks)

QUESTION TWO

- a) Discuss four sectors which can work in collaboration with the ministry of health in the implementation of primary health care in the spirit of multi-sectorial collaboration. (10 marks)
- b) Discuss the primary health care concept and the application in a school (10 marks)

QUESTION THREE

Millennium Development goals had a time line. Discuss the challenges of achieving these goals within the time line and how to address these challenges. (20 marks)

QUESTION FOUR

Discuss malaria control sitting four levels of primary health care activity. (20 marks)

QUESTION FIVE

- a) Explain how community participation can be enhanced in a district (12 marks)
- b) Describe factors that may hinder community participation (8 marks)